Support cancer research

Dear Reader

We are very pleased that you have taken an interest in our work.

The German Cancer Research Center ranks as one of the leading facilities in the field of cancer research. For over 50 years we have been deeply committed to research dedicated to a life without cancer. Since then we have been able to provide an important impulse for the improvement of cancer medicine.

The average life expectancy rises – but with advancing age also the risk of developing cancer. The number of cancer cases worldwide will continue to rise dramatically – we expect it to double in the next 20 years. This “cancer tsunami” confronts us with major challenges that we have to face head on:

We explore how cancer develops; thereby creating innovative approaches that will enhance cancer prevention, early detection and treatment. We want to see tangible progress being made: To bring new findings quickly to the patients and prevent as many new cancer cases as possible. With new therapies we want to provide those affected with better healing chances and with more time to enjoy an improved quality of life.

Cancer research demands a substantial financial commitment. Stand by our side: Donate to benefit our work.

We thank you sincerely for your support.
